

BBA Distance Education

Programme Details

Introduction

The three-year BBA programme offers a wide range of fields. Because of the course's simple study materials, it is extremely well-liked in India. Selection into the BBA programme is often based on performance in the qualifying exam, though there are also opportunities for distance learning.

After earning a BBA, one can always choose to continue their study or perhaps think about pursuing a profession in a related industry. These institutions provide distance learning for the BBA. View the list of institutions in Delhi that offer the BBA programme.

Course Medium

English, Hindi

What are different career opportunities after Correspondence BA Education

The training gives you access to a variety of industries so you can find a job that suits you. HCL, TCS, Accenture, Genpact, IBM, and many other MNCs are among the top employers of BBA students. Therefore, be sure to finish your online BBA graduation programme.

Following completion of this correspondence BBA study, you may qualify for a variety of job descriptions, including:

- Executive in business development
- financial expert
- Project director
- SAP advisor
- Manager of Human Resources
- analyst for data
- Head of the operational team

Aside from these positions, you can easily find a job that suits you based on your particular BBA trade.